

Joint Programs and Double Diplomas – the Experience of the Republic of Moldova

Dandara Otilia, PhD

Collaboration stages

- I. Pre Bologna Period 1997-2005
- II. Bologna Period 2005- 2011

Study Programs

- Bachelor Studies
- Master Studies
- Doctoral Studies

Bilateral projects and collaborations

Methods of collaboration

- Coordination of programs, trainings in European Universities
- Master degree scholarships
- Master and PhD studies in “ co-tutelle”
- Joint programs
- Extensions

Results / effects

- Elaboration of joint programs
- Students' mobility
- Teaching staff mobility

Programs coordinated, trainings

- Developing of study programs
- Experience change in organizing the educational process

Master Degree Scholarships

- Studies in the home university and UE university
- Internships

Studies in "co- tutelle"

- Joint study and research programs
- Research coordinators at both universities
- Research programs performed in both universities
- Thesis defending in UE university
- Diploma recognition

Extensions

- Common use of books fund, technological support
- Mutual employment of teaching staff
- Tendency of compatibilizing of curriculum

Joint Programs

- Joint curriculum
- One year of studies performed in UE university
- UE university teachers in universities of the Republic of Moldova
- Double diplomas

Problems and Risks

- Collaboration is possible only in the framework of UE projects
- Difference remuneration opportunities of teachers
- Scarce equipment endowment of Moldova's universities
- Communication (language) problems

Thank You !